Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

MEMBERS

This list has been prepared at A. L. A. Headquarters, and is, so far as possible, correct to December 10. The names of honorary members are printed separately, names of libraries and other institutional members in Gothic type and of life members in capitals.

The number following each name is the registration number in the order of joining.

Appended to this list of Members is a Directory of those engaged in the Library War Service of the American Library Association, corrected to December 10. Many members of the Association have previously been engaged in the Library War Service, but are not so engaged at this date. The record of all those who have served up to June 15, 1918, will be found in a supplement to the "Library War Bulletin," v. 1, no. 7 (June, 1918).

The following list of Members aims to give the permanent position and address. Hence engagement in the Library War Service is not there recorded, record of it being made instead in the appended Directory and in the bulletin above referred to. There are a few exceptions. Those who have resigned previously-held positions, and therefore are connected solely with the Library War Service, are named in connection with their camp or overseas position. Where members are absent from their regular post on war work other than Library War Service mention is made in the membership list. There are, we fear, a number of members on leave for such work—Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare Board, Red Cross, etc.—whose absence and service are not known to us.

In the following list of Members those who are engaged in the Library War Service have the letter (W) following their names. Their connection with the Library War Service can be learned by referring to the appended Directory, index at end.

Those who have been, or still are, in the military or naval service of the country are designated in the list of members by the words "In active service with the Colors" after their names. The Headquarters office has not been able to give their rank, location or the unit with which they are serving. The office will attempt to compile this information later for permanent record.
